

Computer Range

The USB Mouses will help anyone to read printed text or see printed images at home using their existing PC or laptop.

Both Mouses connect to a computer through the USB port. It uses a very small video capturing programme that is included with the products to display the magnified text or images into a resizable window. These products were specifically designed to be used by people who only have the option to use a computer such as anyone in education or employment.

MonoMouse-USB

ColorMouse-USB-RM

|  |                  |                  |
|--|------------------|------------------|
| Windows XP, Vista, Windows 7              | ✓                | ✓                |
| Greyscale (B&amp;W)                       | ✓                |                  |
| Full colour                               |                  | ✓                |
| Negative image (white text)               |                  | ✓                |
| Positive image (enhanced black text)      |                  | ✓                |
| USB 2.0 port connection                   | ✓                | ✓                |
| Easy store cable                          | ✓                | ✓                |
| Utility software included                 | ✓                | ✓                |
| Microfibre MouseBag included              | ✓                | ✓                |
| Dimensions (H x W x D)Note: 25mm = 1" | 60 x 68 x 130mm  | 60 x 68 x 130mm  |
| Suggested Price                           | £275 +VAT | £369 +VAT |